

The Tarantulas Guide to the Underdark

Issue 15 - Special 1120

During the moot of 1120 our nation suffered a catastrophic loss, the likes of which we have not felt for some time.

The loss of an entire ritual team.

Life in the Underdark is harsh and difficult, and many die on a daily basis just facing this peril. However the loss of a ritual team is felt more notably as we pour our entire empire's skill, resources and hope into every ritual. That loss is a blow to all who dare to dream, most notably to Erdreja herself.

This particular ritual was being led by a ritualist new to the faction, named Hufflefluff. It is understood that during the course of the ritual, the power contained in the circle was allowed to build for far too long a time. When the seal was lowered, Erdreja protected herself by ejecting all the power into the void. This meant the deaths of all inside the seal.

We have so far identified the following casualties

High Ritualist Kalina Arryvandar of House Arryvandar
Guardian of the Pantheon, Gilzarn Zilv-Quellar of House Arryvandar
Paladin Priestess Carythwn Kerithion of House Kerithrion
High Artisan Miso of Den Kage-Kitsune
High Healer Vala Maelthra of House Elandar
High Bard Patience of House Arryvandar
High Librarian Vanyalis of House Arryvandar

Knifetooth of House Maelthra
Iskania of House Arryvandar
Surian of House Grey
Oisin of the Great Tarantulan Empire
Drakalias of House Elandar
Uma of the Akai'zar
The Ritualist for this ritual, Hufflefluff

Our imps have attempted to capture the details of those lost to the void.
